WHY MARC ANDRÉ MOREL?

Audiences love Marc André's content-rich accessible material filled with stories, analogies, humour and energy. Part of what makes him so compelling is the strength of his message, conveyed with passion, creativity and authenticity. His charismatic delivery and style inspire participants to immediately take action both in the work environment and in their personal lives, making the total experience even more enriching.

Founder of Morel Leadership International, duLeader Publishing and the International Professional Speaker School, he is one of Canada's top self-leadership experts. He has delivered over two thousand inspiring, educating and entertaining sessions to both English and French audiences in 9 countries over 3 continents. A Best-Selling author covering personal and career success, Marc André is also a prolific and talented columnist and sought-after speakers coach.

« Marc André is an exceptional speaker! He is actually « beyond words ». Engaging, concise and humorous. He held his audience captivated. Truly inspiring. »

Deborah Kampf, Sr Analyst, Homewood HC, Burlington, Ontario

WHY MARC ANDRÉ MOREL?

After earning his Commerce degree from Concordia University in Montreal, he accumulated several corporate sales and leadership awards, including the Multiple Sclerosis Leadership 2002 Award for his professional excellence and outstanding community contribution. Marc André has also earned the coveted Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation granted by the International Association for Professional Speakers.

He has been interviewed and has appeared in various National television, radio and print Medias for his premiere expertise on personal and career success.

Dedicated to make a difference for adults, but also for youth, he is actively involved in his community to help strengthen the leadership of the next generation as well as to help promote life and perseverance in education. His own personal and inspiring story as a teenager is featured in the acclaimed Chicken Soup for the Canadian Soul. At the age of 16, he delivered his first motivational keynote in front of an audience of 1200 people.

« The best speaker I have seen in over 33 years as a supervisor »
Juan Vick, Sr Supervisor, State Department, Madison, Wisconsin
